

After Dinner Speaking

If you would like to close your Event on a light, jolly, funny and occasionally insightful and rather different note, Jaspar offers a 30 to 45 minute talk on :

- From Vine to TV
- The Art of selling Fine Wine
- A Vintners Philosophy of Success

There are any number of other titles to choose from. Jaspar draws on over thirty years in the wine trade here and abroad and filters into this life experiences of running various businesses, from Pubs to Fine Wine Companies. His tales reflect on life and what gets us to bed at night and what can leave us with a sore head in the morning.

Uplifting and funny is how this is described – a chance to sit back and be entertained.

Champagne vs English Sparkling Wine

An event idea which was inspired while Jaspar was presenting English Sparkling Wines on the Alan Titchmarsh show. Many English Sparkling Wines are easily confused with various Champagnes and this event takes advantage of this to create a competitive blind tasting.

The purpose of the tasting is to have a competitive element. Each flight will be tasted blind and the teams must decide together which is Champagne and which is English. The tasting is done in teams of whatever size you like, however it is recommended that they have at least 4 guests per team. Perfect for a party of 20 +.

“Corporate entertainment that achieves its objectives – It does what it says!”

This works as a stand-alone event before a dinner or as the evening’s entertainment. This tasting will last for 1 ½ hours, with the winning team walking away with prizes – yes, bottles of bubbly!

Jaspar Corbett

Jaspar began working in the wine industry for Majestic Wine in 1983. Leaving Majestic in 1989 he started two Fine Wine businesses which have had success in the UK and Asia. He is currently the owner of Compass Wines, which trades fine wine to private collectors.

Jaspar began presenting corporate events in 1991 when he was asked to produce a communicative course for a leading insurance company. The remit was to create an event that all could participate in, was fun and through which an atmosphere of team building could be initiated. The now recognized Event, “Building-Bridges”, was thus conceived.

Following this success, Jaspar has continued to present in the UK and Asia adding new events to his portfolio, most notably “A Trip Through Bordeaux”.

Jaspar’s Events have never been more popular, drawing on over thirty years in the wine trade each and every one of his presentations is sure to be informative, amusing and fun as well as creating an excellent platform for communication and teamwork!

“A Trip Through Bordeaux”

A Trip Through Bordeaux does exactly what it says but affords those guests only one journey and that is to the venue of this event. The rest is a virtual reality trip undertaken during a dinner at a restaurant, the offices of the host or at home.

This event is truly unique, for rarely will someone have tasted so many great wines from classic vintages in one evening. Further, to have Bordeaux unraveled over a two and a half-hour period will probably also be a first, and makes this an event that many will be prepared to travel for!

Amongst those who have booked Jaspar to present these unique events for groups of up to 25 guests are :

- HBOS
- KPMG
- Redburn Partners
- Deutsche Bank

“Building-Bridges”

Building-Bridges is a carefully crafted piece of corporate entertainment, which opens the gates for communication. This unique event has been described as: fun, lively, often noisy, and for some, informative but above all immensely successful.

The event involves measures of wine tasting, teamwork and informative talking from Jaspar.

“Fun, Lively, often noisy, and for some informative but above all immensely successful.”

This event has been presented to groups as small as 10 and as big as 80 and proves just as fantastic with all sizes.

Whether entertaining clients or internal communication requirements, Building-Bridges does exactly what it says!
